CHAPTER 203

AN ACT to amend 311.05 (1) (a) of the statutes, relating to claims against the estate by county institutions and welfare departments.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

311.05 (1) (a) of the statutes is amended to read:

311.05 (1) (a) The county court may authorize final disposition of the estate of a deceased resident of the county without the appointment of an executor or a general or special administrator whenever the estate does not exceed in value the necessary administration cost, the reasonable funeral expenses, expenses of last illness, * * * the selections and allowances of any surviving widow or minor child, and claims by the county institutions or county welfare department for medical care and maintenance and for assistance and support chargeable to the decedent. In each such case the court shall order the estate distributed to persons entitled to receive such costs, expenses, selections and allowances.

Approved July 25, 1963.
